Security Message for U.S. Citizens:

Continuing Demonstrations Through the Weekend

Thursday, December 12, 2013

Protest organizers and pro-government groups have called for separate rallies of hundreds of thousands of people in downtown Kyiv Friday, December 13, through Sunday, December 15. Protesters continue to occupy Independence square and adjacent buildings. The possibility exists for further clashes between police and protesters or between different groups of demonstrators. The situation is fluid and the location and nature of the demonstrations may change without notice. Demonstrations are also likely in other cities throughout Ukraine.

We strongly urge U.S. citizens to avoid downtown Kyiv and other areas where there are demonstrations or a large police presence. Protesters have blocked roads and may do so again. Individuals should exercise caution when moving around the city. Citizens whose residence or hotel is located in areas with gatherings of protestors and police should leave the area or plan for the possibility they might have to remain inside should clashes occur. U.S. citizens should monitor media coverage and stay aware of the ongoing situation.

Even demonstrations intended to be peaceful can turn confrontational and escalate into violence. You should avoid areas of demonstrations, and exercise caution if in the vicinity of any large gatherings, protests, or demonstrations.

We strongly recommend that U.S. citizens traveling to or residing in Ukraine enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) at www.Travel.State.Gov. STEP enrollment gives you the latest security updates, and makes it easier for the U.S. embassy or nearest U.S. consulate to contact you in an emergency. If you don't have Internet access, enroll directly with the nearest U.S. embassy or consulate.
